RVC Tony Jackowski is planning an LDW (Leadership Development Workshop) for the weekend of May 13-15, 2005, in Fargo. This is basically a weekend of training for everyone interested in attending in all things Mensa. Tony writes, "Currently, I have sessions scheduled for PR (imagine that!!), Testing (Hot Dog!!!!), Getting People Involved, Newsletters, Special Events, and many, many more essential programs. Some possible presenters are Cookie Bakke, Susan Ramsdell, Erin Koffler, Kim Jackowski and yours truly. Plans are still being worked out at this time and I am still waiting to hear about funding approval. More details will be distributed next column and in a special mailing. Keep your eyes on your mailboxes." For more information, please email tjackowski1@comcast.net.
